DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-3, drawn to a method for regulating the appearance of skin comprising topically applying to the skin a composition comprising (a) a cosmetically or pharmaceutically acceptable carrier and about 0.05% to about 5% of an extract comprising a low molecular weight hydrolysable tannin, and mixtures thereof, (b) an effective amount of at least one additional skin care active ingredient selected from a recited Markush group, classified in class 424, subclass 62.
- II. Claims 4-6 and 13-16, drawn to a method for inhibiting or decreasing the expression or function of a matrix metalloprotease in the skin comprising topically applying to the skin a composition comprising a cosmetically or pharmaceutically acceptable carrier and about 0.05% to about 5% of an extract comprising a low molecular weight hydrolysable tannin, classified in class 424, subclass 62.
- III. Claims 7-9, 17 and 18, drawn to a method for inhibiting or decreasing a reactive oxygen species in the skin comprising topically applying to the skin a composition comprising a cosmetically or pharmaceutically acceptable carrier and about 0.05% to about 5% of an extract comprising a low molecular weight hydrolysable tannin, classified in class 424, subclass 62.

- IV. Claims 10-12, 19 and 20, drawn to a method for inhibiting or decreasing oxidative stress induced by free iron and copper in the skin comprising topically applying to the skin a composition comprising cosmetically or pharmaceutically acceptable carrier and about 0.05% to about 5% of an extract comprising a low molecular weight hydrolysable tannin, classified in class 424, subclass 62.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I-IV are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case the four different groups are directed to four different inventions, as the four different inventions are directed to four different methods having different functions and effects. Moreover, these methods are capable of separate manufacture, use or sale, as claimed, and are patentable (novel and unobvious) over each other (though they may be unpatentable because of the prior art) subjects. One would not have to practice the various methods at the same time to practice just one method alone.

Thus, the search for each of the above inventions is not co-extensive particularly with regard to the literature search. Further a reference which would anticipate the invention of one group would not necessarily anticipate or even make obvious another group. Finally, the consideration for patentability is different in each case. Thus, it would be an undue burden to examine all of the above inventions in one application.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and the search required for one Group is not required for another Group, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
